CALL TO ARTISTS Botanical Drawing & Illustration Exhibit

February 3-March 6, 2012

Botanical art bursts into bloom February 3- March 6 2012 when the West Valley Arts Council holds its first Botanical Drawing & Illustration Exhibit in historic downtown Glendale. The exhibition will feature select works embracing a wide variety of styles and techniques of this centuries-old art form. Patrons will observe how the various artists have used their talents to portray not only the many beautiful floral specimens but vegetables too. Enjoy perennial favorites like watercolor, pastel, oil, colored pencil, pencil work, and more. This exhibit is in partnership with the Arizona Science and Technology Festival and the City of Glendale/Glendale Arts Commission. The exhibit will be held at the Gaslight Inn, located at 5747 W. Glendale Avenue, Glendale, AZ 85301.

SUBJECTS

Artists may use any botanical material as the subject for their work. Subjects include all types of plant material from shrubs and trees to grasses and orchids. Full plants and all parts of plant morphology - such as flowers, leaves, fruits, seeds and root systems - can be depicted. Lichens and fungi will also be eligible for consideration as will plant pollinators such as bees, butterflies, and birds. A wide variety of styles will be accepted—from scientific illustration to decorative work.

Eligibility You must be 18 years or older.

Exhibition Show Details

1. Work must be original and completed within the past two years.
2. All entries will be juried and only those accepted will be eligible for the exhibit.
3. Only 2D work will be accepted. Work not fitting the criteria below will not be hung.
