

wvac membership has benefits for you, all year long

The benefits of being an arts member of the West Valley Arts Council (WVAC) are many. Working together, the arts can have a powerful voice in the community. WVAC's role is to amplify the collective voice—through increased attention to and funding for the arts.

WVAC is the only organization in the West valley working daily to promote every discipline of the arts. WVAC provides support to area arts organizations and individual artists through the benefits listed below:

membership benefits

- Your event listings on the WVAC website westvalleyarts.org
- Online listing (name, website, photo of work) in the Cultural Resources Directory
- Opportunity to apply for funding through WVAC's grants program
- Cooperative advocacy opportunities
- Professional development workshops and seminars for you and your staff
- One-on-one consultation in areas of administration such as marketing, fundraising, etc.
- Access to and networking with other arts groups, artists and clubs
- Opportunity to participate in WVAC programs
